

Dave Britt, Executive Director, Rosewood Merchants Association

Dave Britt is the Executive Director of the Rosewood Merchants Association. With that position comes the responsibility of being the event manager for the organizations three primary fundraisers. Those events are the Rosewood Crawfish Festival, The LoCo Craft Beer Jam and the Rosewood Art and Music Festival.

He is also the owner of an entertainment and event management company called Solid Entertainment. Solid Entertainment handles talent buying for The Tasty Tomato Festival, Back to the Roots Festival, The Five Points Chili Cookoff, The SC Oyster Festival, The World Beer Festival and handles event management and talent buying for the River Rocks Festival and The Forest Acres Rooftop Rhythms concert series.

When he is not managing events he is busy producing records and touring with his band Ashes of Old Ways and serving on the board of directors for the Columbia Opportunity Resource (COR).

Dave is a USC graduate with a BA in English and is currently pursuing a degree from Berklee College of Music.
